SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant must comply with the following special conditions as ordered by the Court and implemented by the U.S. Probation Office:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, residence, adjacent structures, office or vehicle, conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; he shall warn any other residents that the residence or vehicle may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. This condition may be invoked with or without the assistance of law enforcement, including the U.S. Marshals Service.
2. The defendant shall participate in a mental health evaluation and/or treatment program, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as he is released from the program by the probation officer. He shall maintain compliance with medications prescribed to him by a licensed psychiatrist or physician
3. The defendant is prohibited from owning or having in his possession any pornographic materials. He shall neither use any form of pornography or erotica nor enter any establishment where pornography or erotica can be obtained or viewed.
4. Any computer and/or electronic storage device the defendant owns or have access to shall be subject to random or periodic unannounced searches by a United States Probation Officer. The search may include examinations of his computer(s) equipment, the retrieval and copying of all data, and any internal or external peripherals, and/or removal of such equipment for inspection. He must allow the U.S. Probation Office to install any hardware or software systems to monitor or filter his computer use. Prior to installation or any such hardware or software systems, he must allow the U.S. Probation Office to examine his computer and/or electronic storage device.
5. The defendant is prohibited from operating or using photographic equipment, a computer, or any electronic storage device to view or produce any form of pornography or child erotica.
6. The defendant shall not use the Internet to view any form of pornography or child erotica via the World Wide Web, a commercial gateway, an Internet Service Provider, Internet Relay Chat channels, or any Internet Protocol address.
7. The defendant shall have no contact with children under the age of 18 (including through letters, communication devices, audio or visual devices, visits, electronic mail, the Internet, or any contact through a third party) without the prior written consent of the probation office.
8. The defendant is prohibited from places where minor children under the age of 18 congregate, such as residences, parks, beaches, pools, daycare centers, playgrounds, and schools without the prior written consent of the probation office.
9. The defendant shall remain in compliance with all sex offender registration and public notification requirements in accordance with the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006. He shall meet with an appropriate official from either the Bureau of Prisons or the U.S. Probation Office who must explain to him all of his registration requirements. The defendant must read and sign the Offender Notice and Acknowledgment of Duty to Register as a Sex Offender form.
